EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

1. CONTEXT OF THE PROPOSAL

• Reasons for and objectives of the proposal

EU funds with nationally pre-allocated envelopes have crucially supported the delivery of key EU objectives and EU common policies – from economic, territorial and social cohesion to ensuring a fair standard of living for the agricultural community, access to affordable food, or creating an Area of Freedom, Security and Justice. Currently, there are several funds that are predominantly pre-allocated to Member States. Yet, the profound challenges our Union faces call for a reflection on how to improve their design to best deliver on our joint priorities.

While regional and territorial disparities have been substantially reduced, including by EU cohesion policies, 29% of EU citizens still live in regions with a GDP per capita below 75% of the EU average and about 135 million people live in places which, in the last two decades, have slowly fallen behind. The current divergent growth trajectories risk widening socio-economic gaps between and within Member States, notably between rural and urban areas.

At the same time, food security and nature protection sustain Europe's quality of life with the Common Agricultural Policy (CAP) able to guarantee that 450 million Europeans have access to safe, high quality and diversified food products at affordable prices, while contributing to preserve vibrant rural areas and make significant progress towards sustainability. Yet, long-term risks for food security and the effects of climate change and environmental degradation put the agricultural sector under increasing pressure. In addition, farmers, fishers and rural areas are increasingly affected by unfair global competition, higher energy prices, a lack of younger farmers and fishers and difficulties in accessing capital. For example, despite the substantial support from the CAP, the agricultural income per worker remains volatile and significantly below the average wage in the EU economy (60% in 2023).

War, insecurity, poverty and a lack of opportunities have strengthened migration flows, and the weaponisation of migration at the EU borders has illustrated new forms of threats. At the same time, the global political and economic landscape poses challenges of unprecedented magnitude, with war still raging on the European continent and also in the neighbourhood.

While these are only a few of the many challenges faced by our Union, they show the need to improve the design of EU support to best deliver on our shared priorities and common policies and ensure that the EU budget continues to play a key role in supporting fair and inclusive growth, sustainable economic convergence, and security. In this regard, the 2024-2029 Political Guidelines of the Commission call for a strengthened, modernised cohesion and growth policy, aimed at reducing economic, social and territorial disparities, supporting employment and strengthening the competitiveness of the Union. They also call for a Common Agriculture Policy that is more targeted and finds the right balance between incentives, investment and regulation and ensures that farmers have a fair and sufficient income. More broadly, they also pledge to support measures to reinforce Europe's defence and security and tackle migration, including effective protection of the EU external borders, as well as preparedness or the fight against climate change. On different occasions, EU Heads of State have called for increasing the resilience of EU agriculture to preserve food security in the long term, the value of vibrant rural communities, and the essential role of the CAP in that regard. Moreover, they called on the need to ensure a stable and predictable policy framework, including to accompany the farmers in tackling environmental and climate challenges.

The Commission Communication of 19 February 2025 entitled ‘A Vision for Agriculture and Food’⁶ sets out general principles for the CAP post-2027. Those principles include a CAP relying on objectives and targeted requirements, further responsibility and accountability for Member States on how they meet the CAP policy objectives, the essential role of the CAP in supporting and stabilising farmers income and attracting a future generation of farmers, a simpler and more targeted policy with a clearer balance between incentives and mandatory requirements, more flexibility for farmers and a shift from conditions to incentives.

More broadly, this 2028-2034 multi-annual financial framework is an opportunity to design a more policy-oriented, simpler, impactful and responsive budget to help Member States and their regions address priorities and challenges in the most effective, inclusive and efficient way, drawing on all the lessons learned from the current programmes. The Commission’s communication on ‘the road to the next MFF’ published on 11 February 2025 stressed in that respect the need to address ‘the complexities, weaknesses and rigidities that are currently present and maximise the impact of every euro it spends’ while guaranteeing the budget’s ability to respond to a changing reality.

This proposal for a Regulation aims to respond to these various challenges by:

- ensuring better coherence between EU priorities, national and regional actions;
- achieving simplification and better value for money by creating a simpler and more efficient delivery system;
- addressing emerging policy priorities by facilitating the reallocation resources to respond to new needs and unforeseen crises, without putting at risk the fulfilment of long-term objectives.

To achieve these objectives, this initiative provides for the grouping of nationally pre-allocated envelopes under a Fund to:

- Simplify the current framework – moving from close to 540 programmes to 27 National and Regional Partnership Plans and one Interreg Plan, with a wide eligibility scope and the same rules, will reduce administrative costs at all levels, while facilitating access to funding for EU businesses, including SMEs, local authorities and project promoters. For the agricultural sector, this presents an evolution based on the most recent reform, which already and for the first time is based on strategic national plans and performance. Likewise, the new framework guarantees coherence by integrating the CAP interventions from the current two-funds structure under one single umbrella. Such alignment brings further flexibility and simplification.
- Provide a more integrated programming process, allowing a more differentiated and qualitative approach to deliver on EU priorities, tailored to each Member State’s national and regional challenges, moving away from a “one-size-fits-all” approach. Integrated programming will also enable stronger synergies between policies, for instance to empower Member States to address the challenges faced by rural areas in a more comprehensive manner, as well as with other EU spending programmes (e.g. the European Competitiveness Fund or the Connecting Europe Facility). In doing so, the Fund will also ensure continued support to those who need it the most, including least developed regions and farmers most in need with a strong focus on generational renewal.

- Ensure that the EU budget supports success, by providing Member States with the necessary objectives to engage in an ambitious reform agenda, which will benefit the EU as a whole, and by guiding spending where it matters and can bring the highest EU added-value – notably by encouraging Member States to select more projects with a high EU added-value than today, including cross-border and multi-country projects (e.g. IPCEIs). Consistency will be ensured across the board, with better policy planning at all levels and a more efficient allocation of EU funds, where they can achieve the best results, as well as fostering stronger synergies between policies.
- Foster ownership at all levels, with a multi-level governance and a strong regional dimension, based on shared management and the partnership principle, ensuring support is focused on the needs of each Member State and its regions and sectors, as well as continuity and predictability for managing authorities and beneficiaries;
- Enable faster and better value for money, by linking the provision of funds to Member States to the progress achieved in the implementation of measures rather than the reimbursement of eligible costs;
- Enshrine strong safeguards to ensure respect of the Rule of Law and the effective application of the European Charter of Fundamental Rights throughout implementation.
- Encourage more flexibility and adaptability, with the progressive allocation of funds throughout the programming period, an easier revision of the plans, and a reserve at EU level offering additional room to adjust to new priorities and crises.

This proposal is accompanied by the proposals for sector-specific Regulations, which set out specific conditions for the provision of Union support in policy areas covered by the Plans. This Union support will be provided under the Fund, in accordance with the rules governing that Fund as proposed in this Regulation.

- Consistency with existing policy provisions in the policy area

The Fund will help better exploit synergies between the policies covered by the scope of this initiative and hence support their delivery. For example, by bringing cohesion policy and the Common Agricultural Policy under a single programming approach, Member States will have a wider toolbox to address the challenges faced by farmers and communities in rural areas (e.g. infrastructure development; for services, digitalisation, access to water and energy infrastructure; skills development, generational renewal). Likewise, by bringing migration with cohesion under the same programming approach, regions will be better equipped to integrate migrants in the labour market while protecting their borders.

A simplified framework for nationally pre-allocated envelopes will make it easier to capitalise on synergies with other EU budget programmes, with the steering mechanism ensuring coherent programming without overlaps. Synergies will be particularly relevant with the European Competitiveness Fund, the Connecting Europe Facility and the Global Europe Fund.

- Consistency with other Union policies

The Fund will support and therefore deliver increased consistency with other Union policies, such as:

- the Commission Communication on implementation and simplification ‘A simpler and faster Europe’¹, which launches a new drive to speed up, simplify and improve EU policies and laws, make rules clearer and easier to understand and faster to implement.
- the Competitiveness Compass for the EU², which calls for horizontal enablers such as removing barriers to the single market as well as simplifying the regulatory environment through a refocused EU budget. Having a simplified framework for nationally pre-allocated envelopes will allow in that respect to better exploit synergies with other instruments of the EU budget, including the European Competitiveness Fund.
- the Clean Industrial Deal³, which sets out a joint roadmap for competitiveness and decarbonisation and identifies the post-2027 MFF as a key enabler for the clean transition. As part of the Clean Industrial Deal, the Commission adopted the Action Plan for Affordable Energy⁴ which aims to lower energy costs for all, increase energy efficiency or energy crisis preparedness.
- The Commission Communication of 5 March 2025 on the Union of Skills⁵, which sets out the necessary actionable steps to equip people with the right skills and achieve more competitive and inclusive Europe.
- The “Vision for Agriculture and Food”⁶ of 19 February 2025, which puts forward measures to ensure long-term competitiveness and sustainability of the EU’s farming and food sector.
- The White Paper for European Defence – Readiness 2030 of 19 March 2025 which provides for a new approach to defence and identifies investment needs. It outlines key lines of action on how to safeguard Europe’s security, including through massive investments into defence and building up the readiness of the European defence industry.

2. LEGAL BASIS, SUBSIDIARITY AND PROPORTIONALITY

• Legal basis

EU action is justified by multiple legal bases reflecting the different policies supported by the Fund:

- Article 174 TFEU commits the EU to promote economic, social and territorial cohesion.
- Articles 176, 177 and 162 TFEU establish the European Regional Development Fund, the Cohesion Fund and the European Social Fund respectively and define their respective objectives.

1 COM(2025) 47 final
 2 COM(2025) 30 final
 3 COM(2025) 85 final
 4 COM/2025/79
 5 COM(2025) 90 final
 6 COM/2025/75 final

- Article 38 TFEU empowers the EU to define and implement a common agriculture and fisheries policy. Article 39 TFEU sets the objectives of the CAP, which include the increase of agricultural productivity, a fair standard of living for the agricultural community, stabilise markets, assure the availability of supplies and that these supplies reach consumers at reasonable prices.
- Article 175 TFEU lists the Structural Funds, which shall support the achievement of ⁷ economic, social and territorial cohesion – the European Agricultural Guidance and Guarantee Fund, Guidance Section; European Social Fund; European Regional Development Fund. Article 177 TFEU provides that “the European Parliament and the Council [...] shall define the tasks, priority objectives and the organisation of the Structural Funds, which may involve grouping the Funds.”

- Subsidiarity (for non-exclusive competence)

The objectives of the proposal cannot be achieved by Member States acting alone, as the challenges are of a cross-border nature, and not limited to single Member States or to a subset of Member States.

Nationally pre-allocated envelopes play a vital role in delivering on EU priorities across all Member States and regions. For instance, cohesion policy promotes integration and cooperation among Member States, helping reduce regional disparities within and between Member States. The Common Agricultural Policy ensures a level playing field among Member States and farmers in the single market, guaranteeing food security throughout the Union, enhancing the attractiveness of the sector also for young farmers and new entrants, and addressing challenges of a cross-border and global nature. In the field of home affairs, EU funding is necessary to ensure a common approach and fostering cooperation in the Area of Freedom Security and Justice. The conservation of marine resources, being an exclusive EU competence, puts a responsibility on the Union in terms of policy-making and financing.

Funding at Union level is also necessary to support EU public goods that are insufficiently prioritised by Member States due, for instance, to market failures, but which bring high EU-wide benefits, such as cross-border projects or Important Projects of Common European Interest.

Addressing these challenges through nationally pre-allocated envelopes would provide added-value by creating ownership and ensuring that support takes into account the specific needs of each Member State and its regions. It would also help the EU achieve its policy objectives more efficiently by linking EU funding to reforms, thereby enhancing the EU’s leverage to encourage and assist Member States in overcoming institutional and regulatory obstacles that hinder the fulfilment of EU policy priorities. Reforms can also help to increase the positive impact of investments, hence increasing the value of each euro spent.

- Proportionality

In accordance with the principle of proportionality, the proposed Regulation does not go beyond what is necessary to achieve the objectives mentioned under section 1. The proposal specifically aims at furthering previous simplification efforts, by further unifying and consolidating rules, and ensuring a stronger focus on performance and flexibility to maximise the effectiveness and responsiveness of EU spending.

- Choice of the instrument

The most appropriate vehicle to operationalize the proposed framework is i.e. a regulation establishing a Fund with a broad eligibility scope and setting out the single set of rules governing the National and Regional Partnership Plans to be prepared by each Member State for the post-2027 period.

3. RESULTS OF EX-POST EVALUATIONS, STAKEHOLDER CONSULTATIONS AND IMPACT ASSESSMENTS

- Stakeholder consultations

The Commission actively engaged with stakeholders in the process of the initiative, notably through:

- dedicated events, such as the Citizens' panel on the new European budget, the Annual Budget Conference, Tour d'Europe (a round of consultations carried out by the Commissioner for the Budget, Anti-Fraud and Public Administration across Member States and regions), and;
- a dedicated Open Public Consultation (from 12 February to 7 May 2025).

Stakeholder consultations struck a similar note to the conclusion of the impact assessment, highlighting as key features for the future funding framework the need for simplification, greater flexibility and the importance of ensuring support for all regions based on their specific needs rather than uniform allocations. Addressing structural disparities, including persisting social, economic, regional and territorial disparities, remains a top concern, as well as the need to enhance administrative capacity. Enhancing multilevel governance and stakeholder participation also emerged as a clear priority.

The concerns raised by stakeholders are addressed in the various simplification measures included in the Fund's regulation as well as by the various rules governing the design and implementation of the Plans.

- Collection and use of expertise

The preparation of the impact assessment and the draft regulation by the Commission was based on a review of the available literature as documented in the impact assessment report, e.g. based on EU budget programmes evaluations (mid-term and ex post), the spending review exercise, reports and documents from other EU institutions such as the European Parliament and the European Court of Auditors.

In particular, the analysis drew from the reflections of the high-level expert group on the future of cohesion policy, which was convened in 2024 and found that cohesion policy should operate in concert with other EU and national policies, as these are mutually dependent and must work together to reach their collective goals. It also collected evidence from the 2024 report of the Strategic Dialogue on the Future of EU Agriculture, which called for a CAP that (1) provides socio-economic support targeted to the farmers who need it most; (2) promotes positive environmental, social and animal welfare outcomes for society; and (3) invigorates enabling conditions for rural areas. It also called for a more proactive role of cohesion policy to support the attractiveness of rural areas and the CAP. Additional inputs on the future of the CAP were collected through dedicated meetings organised in the framework of existing EU stakeholders' platforms and ad hoc technical workshops bringing together EU stakeholders and Member States.

- Impact assessment

The proposal was supported by an impact assessment, which examined options for the design of the plan, focusing on the delivery model – how funds are disbursed – and on the management mode – how EU spending is implemented and overseen. Design features have an impact on the scope of the plans, which was examined in a second stage.

The impact assessment concluded that the preferred option for the design of the plans is a delivery model against pre-agreed objectives (Option B), under shared management (Option D). On the one hand, delivery against pre-agreed objectives ensures better coherence, value for money and accountability compared to a cost-based delivery model, since the specific results to be achieved are set out in advance. Providing financial support upon the fulfilment of milestones and targets further provides incentives to deliver on the implementation of agreed measures. Such a delivery model also provides a simpler framework for having reforms at Member States level and enables to further enhance coherence between EU and national/regional/local activities. On the other hand, shared management will cater best for the multi-level governance and strong regional dimension of the plans. It would also ensure simplicity for Member States and regions which could build on the structures already put in place for the management of EU funds with nationally pre-allocated envelopes and hence lead to lower adjustment costs for Member States' authorities compared to direct management (except for the Social Climate Fund).

As for the scope of the plans, the impact assessment showed that having a plan per Member State would ensure more coherent, coordinated programming of pre-allocated envelopes, reflecting the different needs at national and regional level while ensuring support for EU priorities identified in the steering mechanism. The impact assessment concluded that a bigger scope of the plans as foreseen in Option 3b would bring the most policy coherence to the plans, allowing to capitalise on the synergies that exist between policies and removing existing overlaps.

All options are expected to reduce the administrative costs for Member States and regions – albeit to different extents. Option 1 would reduce the number of programmes from more than 400 to a plan for each Member State, while moving away from the two-step programming in cohesion policy to single programming based on a single set of rules, is also expected to reduce implementation delays – without prejudice to a strong multi-level governance and regional dimension. Option 2a would partially help better exploit the synergies with other EU policies such as cohesion but would reverse the strategic planning approach to the whole CAP that was introduced with the CAP Strategic Plans 2023-2027. It is expected to bring some further simplification given the similarities between the CAP and the Common Provisions Regulation, but with some adjustment costs for Member States' authorities which would need to work under two different systems for the two CAP funds. The full integration of the CAP (Option 2b) would remedy this but the introduction of specific rules for the integration of area and animal-based interventions on which farmers directly rely for their livelihood would nevertheless remain necessary to preserve the integrity of the single market and fair competition between farmers. Overall, Options 2b and 3 were found to bring higher simplification gains and better policy synergies than Options 1 and 2a.

Having one single envelope per Member State would ensure the efficient and flexible allocation of funding across policy areas, allowing Member States to address new priorities such as defence capabilities or preparedness. It would also make it easier to reallocate resources to respond to unforeseen challenges or shifting policy needs without needing to re-open the legislative framework. The impact assessment concluded that a bigger scope of the plans as foreseen in Option 3b would bring the most flexibility compared to the other two options.

- Regulatory fitness and simplification

While the proposed regulation does not correspond to a revision of existing legislation linked to the REFIT, the proposed initiative is fully in line with the REFIT objectives of simplification and reduction of red tape. Compared to the status quo (where EU funds with nationally pre-allocated envelopes are governed by separate fund-specific regulations and implemented through different programmes), this initiative would create one single rulebook for the implementation of nationally pre-allocated envelopes, through one single programming document per Member State – the National and Regional Partnership Plans.

The initiative is expected to result in a significant reduction of administrative burden and improved efficiency. Having one common set of rules is expected – over the short to medium term – to reduce costs for national/regional/local administrations as well as stakeholders. Bringing together different EU funds also provides the opportunity to increase synergies and flexibility in the use of EU resources, which is conducive to a better allocation of resources and a more efficient EU budget, with macroeconomic and society-wide benefits in the long term. The focus on EU priorities, while taking into account national and regional needs, is also expected to contribute to a more efficient use of EU resources.

While one-off adjustment costs are expected for national and regional authorities and beneficiaries (including businesses) to adjust to the new set-up, recurrent compliance and administrative costs are expected to be reduced compared to the status quo thanks to the simplification efforts.

- Fundamental rights

Alongside the Conditionality Regulation which will continue to apply to the whole of the EU budget, this Regulation includes strong safeguards to ensure that the funds are implemented in compliance with the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union and the principle of the rule of law, as set out in Article 2(a) of Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2020/2092. The inclusion in the future Plans of reforms linked, inter alia, to recommendations from the Rule of Law Report is also expected to enhance the protection of fundamental rights and strengthen compliance with the Charter.

4. BUDGETARY IMPLICATIONS

The Commission's proposal for a multi-annual financial framework sets out an amount of EUR [xx] billion for the Fund for the period 2028-2034.

The Fund also makes available to Member States for the implementation of their Plans a total amount of loan support of EUR [XX] billion. The Commission should be able to contract borrowings on the financial markets in accordance with the diversified funding strategy.

Details on financial and staffing needs can be found in the LFDS.

5. OTHER ELEMENTS

- Implementation plans and monitoring, evaluation and reporting arrangements

This initiative will be monitored through the performance framework applicable for the 2028-2034 multiannual financial framework, which is set out in the proposal for a Regulation xx [performance regulation]. The performance framework provides for an implementation report during the implementation phase of the programme, as well as a retrospective evaluation to be carried out in accordance with Article 34(3) of Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2024/2509. The evaluation shall be conducted in accordance with the Commission's Better Regulation Guidelines and will be based on indicators relevant to the objectives of the Fund.

- Detailed explanation of the specific provisions of the proposal

Title I – General provisions [Article 1 to 9]

The Fund brings together the European Funds with nationally pre-allocated envelopes and is established for the period 2028 to 2034. Article 2 defines general objectives which should be pursued through specific objectives grouped around five pillars (Article 3).

The Commission and the Member States should implement the National and Regional Partnership Plans and the Interreg Plan under shared management while the Commission may resort to direct, shared or indirect management when implementing the EU Facility (Article 24) and contributions from the Global Europe Instrument included in chapters supporting outermost regions' cooperation may be implemented in shared or in indirect management.

Article 6 defines the horizontal principles applicable to the Regulation, including the obligation for Member States to comply, in the implementation of the Fund, with the principles of the rule of law and the Charter of Fundamental rights of the European Union as well as the principles of the 'do no significant harm' and gender equality in line with the [Performance Regulation]. They should also foster synergies and ensure effective coordination between the Fund and other Union programmes and instruments, including the European Competitiveness Fund.

Each Member State should organize and implement a comprehensive partnership for the National and Regional Partnership Plan and each chapter, in line with the principle of multi-level governance and bottom-up approach, to ensure a balanced representation of various partners (Article 7).

This Title establishes horizontal conditions regarding compliance with the rule of law and Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union and sets out the terms of their application (Articles 8 and 9).

Title II - Financial framework [Article 10 to 20]

The financial envelope of the Fund is EUR [xx] for the period 2028 to 203X, out of which EUR [xx] should be allocated to the Plans, EUR [xx] to the EU Facility and EUR [xx] to the Interreg Plan (Article 10).

The rules linked to the additional resources and the use of such resources as well the amounts of cash contributions to be made by a Member State to the provisioning of the budgetary guarantee, to the financing of the financial instrument or to any amounts of non-repayable support when combined with the budgetary guarantee or the financial instrument in a blending operation as are laid down in Article 11.

The Fund may support technical and administrative assistance at the initiative of the Commission for the implementation of the Plan and the Interreg Plan (Article 12). At the initiative of a Member State, the Fund may support actions necessary for the effective implementation of the Fund (Article 13).

The distribution of the funds across the Member States within the Fund will be made in accordance with Annex I. Member States will have flexibility through the implementation phase to be able to respond to crises and unforeseen circumstances (Article 14).

Article 14 defines the rules on budgetary commitments. Articles 15 and 16 describe the cases where the Commission should decommit any amount in a Plan and the Interreg Plan and the procedural steps in case of a decommitment. Member States should be able to receive pre-financing subject to the adoption of a Council implementing decision approving a Plan (Article 17).

Upon a request from a Member State, the Commission may grant the Member State concerned a loan for the implementation of its Plan (Article 18). Article 19 sets out the details of the loan agreement and the rules for the Commission's empowerment to borrow the necessary funds on the financial markets or from financial institutions.

The minimum national contribution rate to the estimated costs of the measures of the Plan should be calculated based on Article 20.

Title III – National and Regional Partnership Plans [Article 21 to 25]

Each Member State should submit to the Commission a National and Regional Partnership Plan which should be prepared and implemented in cooperation with the partners (Article 21). The Plan should include the elements set out in Article 21 and Annex III. Upon positive assessment, the Commission should make a proposal for a Council implementing decision (Article 23).

During the implementation phase, the Member States may request a reasoned amendment of their National and Regional Partnership Plan, setting out the expected impact on the achievement of objectives (Article 24). The Member States should also submit amended plans as part of the mid-term review by 31 March 2031 (Article 25).

Title IV - EU Facility [Article 26 to 33]

The Regulation establishes the EU Facility to increase flexibility and cater for unforeseen crises. The Facility will cover Union actions and emerging challenges and priorities cushion (the 'budget cushion') (Article 26). The EU Facility may be implemented in the form of budgetary guarantees, financial instruments and blending operations (Article 27), or with participation of third countries (Article 28) or Support for activities in and in relation to third countries (Article 29) and other entities under direct and indirect management (Article 30). Article 31 lays down the objectives and actions to be supported and the respective procedural steps for Union actions. Article 32 specifies cases where the amount allocated to the budget cushion should be used. The Member States may request to amend their Plans in case of crisis situations (Article 33).

Title V – Common Agricultural Policy [Article 34 to 44]

Article 34 lists the types of interventions for which Union support is granted to pursue the objectives of the Common Agricultural Policy. Specific requirements for CAP interventions are specified in Article 35 and the rules on monitoring of agricultural resources in Article 36. Article 35 sets out rules on crisis payments to farmers following natural disasters, adverse climatic events and catastrophic events. Crop-specific payments for cotton are established in Article 38.

Member States should design the CAP income support on the basis of the types of interventions listed in Annex X [WTO Annex] (Article 39). Article 40 outlines the rules on the implementation of the Memorandum of Understanding on oilseeds between the European Economic Community and the United States of America.

Articles 41-44 set out rules on support for the smaller Aegean islands concerning scope and common requirements, specific supply arrangements, support for local agricultural products and control and penalties.

Title VI Outermost regions [Article 45 to 47]

The Regulation provides that Member States concerned shall prepare, as part of their NRP Plan, an action plan for each of their outermost regions, fulfilling the objectives set out in Article 45. The Regulation lays down rules regarding the specific supply arrangements for the agricultural products listed in Annex I TFEU (Article 46 and support for local agricultural products (Article 47).

Title VII – Governance of the plan [Article 48 to 55]

Member States should identify for the Plan one or more managing authorities, one or more paying agencies and one or more audit authorities (Article 48) which should fulfil key requirements set in Annex III. If the Member State identifies more than one managing authority it should set up a coordinating authority. The Regulation defines the functions of the coordinating authority (Article 49), of the managing authority (Article 50), of the paying agency (Article 51), of the audit authority (Article 52).

Member States should set up one or more monitoring committees for one or more chapters of the Plan. If more than one monitoring committee is set up, the Member State should also establish a coordinating committee to ensure the overview and monitoring of the implementation (Article 53). Article 54 defines the composition and Article 55 the functions of the monitoring committee.

Title VIII - Management and financial rules [Article 56 to 68]

The Regulation specifies the appropriate measures to protect the financial interest of the Union and compliance with the applicable law (Article 56). The Member States should submit to the Commission by 15 February of each year following 2028 the assurance package (Article 57). The Regulation also outlines the responsibilities of the Commission (Article 58), defines the single audit approach (Article 59) as well as responsibilities of the Commission and the Member States regarding the data collection and recording (Article 61) and transparency (Article 62). Article 60 sets up the control system for farm stewardship and common fisheries policy.

The Regulation lays down rules on payments, including submission and assessment of payment applications (Article 63), time limits and interruption of the payments' deadline

(Article 64), suspension of payments (Article 65), financial corrections by the Commission (Article 66) and durability and reversal (Article 67) and Integrated Administration and Control System (IACS) (Article 68).

Title IX - Specific type of support [Article 69 to 77]

The Regulation stipulates the rules for when the Member States wish to include in their Plans existing or newly created financial instruments implemented directly by, or under the responsibility of, the managing authority (Article 69). It also stipulates the tasks linked to management verifications and audits of financial instruments (Article 70). Article 71 sets out the rules on management verifications and audits for ex-ante assessed entities as beneficiaries.

Member States should support local cooperation initiatives (Article 72), including integrated territorial and urban development in their Plans (Article 73), community-led local development (Article 74), support under LEADER (Article 75).

Article 76 sets out rules on Use of simplified form of support towards the beneficiaries.

Member States may support measures where the underlying operation(s) consist of the second phase of an operation already selected and started under Regulation (EU) No 2021/1060 if the relevant conditions are met (Article 77).

Title XII – Social Climate Fund and Modernisation Fund [Article 78 to 81]

Given the significant overlaps in terms of e.g., policy objectives, and the implementation timeline, the Social Climate should be integrated into the Plans from 2028 onwards. Articles 78 and 79 set out the procedural rules, accompanied by the amendments of Regulation 2023/955 (Article XX). To enhance synergies and consistency, Member States benefitting from support under the Modernisation Fund will aim to ensure consistency between the investments financed within their NRP Plans and those presented to the Investment Committee of the Modernisation Fund (Article 80). Article 81 sets out amendments to Regulation (EU) 2023/955.

Title XIII – Institutional and final provisions [Article 82 to 89].

The Regulation contains provisions related to the rules applying to undertakings, state aid rules and potential derogation from these rules (Articles 82-84).

The Regulation confers the power on the Commission to adopt delegated acts for an indeterminate period from XXX (Articles 85 and 86).

The rules on the committee procedure are established in Article 87.

Article 88 sets out amendments to Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2024/2509.

The provisions on shared management under the Financial Regulation are amended to adapt them to the delivery model of this Regulation (Article X).

REGULATION OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL

THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in particular Article 42, 43(3), 46, point (d) and 91(1), point (d), Articles 149, Article 153 (2), point (a), and Article 164, 175, 177, 178, 192(1), 194(2), 209(1), 212(2), 322(1), point (a), and Article 349, thereof,

Whereas:

- (1) Article 174 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU) provides that, in order to promote its overall harmonious development, the Union is to develop and pursue actions that lead to the strengthening of its economic, social and territorial cohesion. It further lays down that the Union shall, in particular, aim at reducing disparities between the levels of development of the various regions and the backwardness of the least favoured regions.
- (2) Article 175 TFEU requires that Member States are to coordinate their economic policies in such a way as to attain the objectives set out in Article 174 TFEU. The Union also supports the achievement of these objectives by the action it takes through the Structural Funds, including the European Agricultural Guidance and Guarantee Fund, Guidance Section; the European Social Fund and the European Regional Development Fund. The Commission's Communication on the road to the next multiannual financial framework¹ emphasises that the effectiveness of Union funding is hampered by fragmentation of the financial architecture coupled with complexity and rigidities that increases risk of overlaps. Financing of Union's policy objectives is scattered across overlapping programmes, each with its own sets of rules. These elements generate administrative burden for recipients and Member States and limit the flexibility of the Union budget.
- (3) Article 39 TFEU provides for the objectives of the Common Agriculture Policy (CAP), which include the increase of agricultural productivity, a fair standard of living for the agricultural community, to stabilise markets and assure the availability of supplies and that these supplies reach consumers at reasonable prices.
- (4) Article 162 TFEU highlights the objectives to be pursued to improve employment opportunities for workers in the internal market and to contribute to raising the standard of living.
- (5) The Union needs to achieve its objectives within a challenging economic and social context including persisting regional and territorial disparities, challenges related to food security and nature protection as well as significant economic and social consequences, including linked to the transition to climate neutrality. That is coupled with a challenging geopolitical context that has an impact on Union's defence, security and migration policies. Effectively addressing these challenges requires a more focused, simpler and more impactful Union budget, to ensure the Union added value and clear alignment between Union financial support and EU policy priorities across all policy areas and management modes to continue efforts to simplify rules on Union financial support.

- (6) This Regulation should set out rules on the tasks, priority objectives, and organisation of the Fund. In order to further develop a coordinated and harmonised implementation of Union support implemented under shared management, namely the European Regional Development Fund (ERDF), of the European Social Fund Plus (ESF+), and the Cohesion Fund, measures financed under shared management in the common agriculture and fisheries policies, and support under Title V of Part III of the TFEU, horizontal rules based on Article 322 TFEU should also be established. Sector specific regulations may set out specific conditions to complement this Regulation. Those conditions should not be in contradiction with this Regulation.
- (7) The Union budget, implemented together with the Member States, should, in particular, provide for a strengthened, modernised cohesion and growth policy, the sustainable development and competitiveness of the Union and its security. This policy should be elaborated in partnership with national, regional and local authorities; and stepping up on climate and water resilience and preparedness with an overarching objective for Union action of preparing for growing climate risks. The Union budget should continue to support a CAP that is simpler, targeted and with the right balance between incentives, investment and regulation and ensures that farmers have a fair and sufficient income, attractive for young farmers. The Union budget should ensure the predictability necessary for a common policy that provides income support.
- (8) It is in this context key to continue efforts to simplify rules on Union and improve current delivery models to maximise the effectiveness and responsiveness of Union spending. The funds allocated to Member States should therefore incorporate a stronger focus on results, simplification and maximising public investment with high Union added value and leveraging private capital. Accordingly, the Union should set the objectives and types of interventions while greater responsibility and accountability for meeting those objectives should be borne by the Member States. As a consequence, there is a need to ensure greater subsidiarity and flexibility in order to take better account of the local and regional conditions and needs.
- (9) In accordance with Article 177 TFEU, the European Parliament and the Council should, by means of regulations, define tasks, priority, objectives and the organisation of the Structural Funds, which may involve grouping the Funds. To develop a more coordinated, harmonised and effective implementation of Union Funds, this Regulation should provide for the grouping of nationally pre-allocated funds under the European Fund for Economic, Territorial, Social, Rural and Maritime Sustainable Prosperity and Security ('the Fund'). The Fund should be implemented through National and Regional Partnership Plans (the 'NRP Plans') and the Union Facility ('the Facility'), which aims at increasing flexibility and catering for unforeseen crises and to finance interventions complementing and reinforcing the Plans that require Union-level steer and/or coordination.
- (10) With the aim of ensuring a more efficient use of Union funding, the Fund should address the outlined challenges in a holistic, coordinated and consistent manner, reflecting the different national and regional needs of each Member State while ensuring support for all relevant Union priorities and value for money. Furthermore, the Fund should contribute to a streamlined and well-coordinated framework while relying on a strong multi-level governance and partnership. It should provide a basis to ensure a more efficient and flexible allocation of funding across different policy areas while allowing Member States to address new policy priorities and reallocate resources to respond to unforeseen challenges and crises.

- (11) The support to Member States, regions and local communities in delivering on Union policy priorities and maximising efficiency maximisation of Union funding should be achieved, through the support for measures of high Union relevance linked to the most pressing challenges affecting Europe. Those challenges should be addressed by pursuing five high level objectives: Europe's sustainable prosperity across all regions; Europe's defence capabilities and security; supporting people, strengthening Europe's societies and Europe's social model; sustaining Europe's quality of life; protecting and strengthening democracy, rule of law and upholding Union values.
- (12) Union's sustainable prosperity should be supported by strengthening its industrial base and fostering the attractiveness of territories to support the right to stay, including via strategies for the integrated development of urban and rural areas and fostering European territorial cooperation. The measures should also focus on trans-European networks and decarbonisation projects while enabling regions and people to address the impacts of the transition towards the Union's 2030 targets. They should also aim to promote innovative economic transformation, the development and use of advanced technologies and ICT connectivity.
- (13) In the area of Union's defence capabilities and security, measures should reinforce Union's defence industrial base and military mobility and strengthen the Unions' preparedness, threat detection, resilience and crisis response, including by strengthening cybersecurity. They should aim to ensure high level of security in the Union, including integration measures that are consistent with the objectives set out in Regulation (EU) [...] concerning Union support for asylum including subsidiary protection, temporary protection, migration and integration, Regulation (EU) [...] concerning Union support for European [integrated] border management, including functioning of the Schengen area and for European visa policy, and Regulation (EU) [...] Union support for internal security.
- (14) Measures supporting people, strengthening Union's societies and Union's social model should contribute to the implementation of the European Pillar of Social Rights, in accordance with the guidelines for employment referred to in Article 148(4) TFEU, by supporting projects in the policy areas of employment and labour mobility, skills development, education, social inclusion and poverty reduction. They should aim to ensure equal opportunities, equal access to the labour market, fair and quality working condition, social protection and inclusion, in particular focusing on enhancing labour supply, ensuring quality and inclusive education and training, lifelong learning. The measures should support investments in children and young people, marginalised and disadvantaged communities, third countries nationals and ensure equal access to basic services. They should also contribute to strengthening the resilience of the healthcare systems and long-term care services, support affordable housing and focus on achieving a socially fair transition towards climate neutrality, addressing the social impacts of the inclusion of greenhouse gas emissions from buildings and road transport within the scope of Directive 2003/87/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council.
- (15) Sustainable Union's quality of life should be supported by ensuring fairer and sufficient income for farmers and their long-term competitiveness and contributing to long-term food security. The general objectives of the Fund should in respect to the CAP be defined at the Union level and implemented by the Member States through their plans. The measures should also improve the attractiveness and living standards in rural areas and fair working conditions and foster generational renewal; improve farmers' preparedness and ability to cope with crises and risks, enhance the access to knowledge and innovation and accelerate the digital transition for a thriving agri-food sector. The measures should support sustainability, competitiveness and resilience of the Union fisheries and of the Union aquaculture sector, boosting the sustainable and competitive blue economy in coastal, island and inland areas, enhancing the socio-economic opportunities and the resilience of the local communities and ensuring strong ocean governance in all dimensions, with safe, secure, clean and sustainably managed ocean. They should enhance climate action, ecosystem services provision, supporting efficient water management and resilience, strengthening sustainable development, environmental protection, enhancing the conservation and restoration of biodiversity and natural resources, and improving animal welfare.

- (16) In order to protect, strengthen democracy, rule of law and uphold Union values, support should be dedicated to sustaining and further developing open, rights-based, democratic, equal and inclusive societies as well as to strengthening justice systems, anti-corruption frameworks, media pluralism and effective checks and balances. The measures should also aim to enhance the efficiency of public administration and the institutional capacity of public authorities and stakeholders responsible for carrying out activities relevant to the implementation of the Fund.
- (17) Since the objectives of this Regulation cannot be sufficiently achieved by the Member States but can rather – by reason of the extent and specificities of some the aforementioned challenges – be better achieved at Union level, the Union may adopt measures in accordance with the principle of subsidiarity as set out in Article 5 of the Treaty on European Union (TEU). In accordance with the principle of proportionality as set out in that Article, this Regulation does not go beyond what is necessary to achieve those objectives. Regions will remain at the centre of the Fund with the partnership principle and multi-level governance as the underlying elements. To ensure continuity, the Fund will build as much as possible on existing structures with regional and local authorities and other relevant stakeholders playing a key role in the design, management, implementation and monitoring of the supported measures under the Fund.
- (18) The principle of partnership is a key feature in the implementation of the NRP Plans, building on the multi-level governance approach and ensuring the involvement of regional, local, urban and other public authorities, civil society, economic and social partners. In order to provide continuity in the organisation of partnership, the European code of conduct on partnership for Partnership Agreements and programmes supported by the European Structural and Investment Funds established by the Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) No 240/2014 (8) (the 'European code of conduct on partnership') should continue to apply to the Plans.
- (19) The NRP Plans aim to ensure high value for money by making payments from the Commission to Member States conditional upon the achievement of outputs and the fulfilment of conditions, irrespective of the form of reimbursement from Member States to beneficiaries. Linking disbursements with pre-set milestones and targets covering the full lifespan of the supported measure will contribute to the regularity of payments to Member States. To facilitate this process, Member States should be able to submit payment applications up to six times a year. To simplify financing and reduce administrative burden for beneficiaries, Member States are encouraged to use the same form of reimbursement applied for payments from the Commission to Member State or standard scales of unit costs, lump sums or flat rates.

- (20) The Fund should be implemented in accordance with Regulation (EU, Euratom) 202X/XXXX [Performance regulation] which establishes the rules for the expenditure tracking and the performance framework for the budget, including rules for ensuring a uniform application of the principles of ‘do no significant harm’ and gender equality referred to in Article 33(2), points (d) and (f) of Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2024/2509 respectively, rules for monitoring and reporting on the performance of Union programmes and activities, rules for establishing a Union funding portal, rules for the evaluation of the programmes, as well as other horizontal provisions applicable to all Union programmes, such as those on information, communication and visibility. The Fund should ensure accessibility, taking into account the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union, including the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities. The Fund should not support actions that contribute to any form of segregation or exclusion, and, when financing infrastructure, should ensure the accessibility for persons with disabilities.
- (21) This Regulation should include strong safeguards to ensure that the Fund is implemented in a way that ensures respect with the rights, freedoms and principles set out in the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union and of the principles of the rule of law as set out in Article 2(a) of Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2020/2092 of the European Parliament and of the Council. Therefore, as part of their NRP Plan’s validation process, Member States would have to provide assurance on the fulfilment of these two horizontal conditions, with an identification of potential deficiencies and remedial actions based, in particular, on the country-specific challenges identified in the context of the Rule of Law Report and European Semester. All Member States will be required to review their NRP Plans halfway through implementation, as part of the mid-term review, to address any new deficiencies identified, in particular, in the context of the latest Rule of Law Report. At any time during implementation and following exchanges with the Member State concerned, there should be a possibility to block part or all of the payments made to a Member State if one or more of the Rule of Law and Charter horizontal conditions is not fulfilled. With due regard to the principle of proportionality, the determination of the non-fulfilment and identification of the specific measures concerned should take into account the actual or potential impact of the non-fulfilment on the sound financial management of the Union budget or on the financial interests of the Unions as well as the nature, duration, gravity and scope of the breach.
- (22) Each Member State should submit to the Commission a NRP Plan, as a rule, by February 2028 so that it could be given careful and timely consideration. To ensure fast implementation of the Fund, Member States should be able to submit a draft NRP Plan from June 2027. Member States should design and implement the NRP Plans in partnership with local and regional authorities, economic, social and rural partners and civil society organisations and other relevant stakeholders in accordance with the national legal framework and the rules set out in this Regulation. The NRP Plans should be designed in close cooperation with the Commission, prepared in accordance with the template provided and made publicly available following their adoption by the Council on the basis of the Commission’s assessment and proposal for a Council implementing decision. In line with current arrangements, Member States will have the possibility to include regional and territorial chapters in their NRP Plan and will have to ensure that regional managing authorities receive regular payments, based on the progress of their respective measures, and an amount at least equivalent to their Union contribution by the end of the period, subject to potential corrections resulting from the implementation of their respective chapter(s). To ensure effective governance of the NRP Plan, Member States should set up monitoring committees for the chapters and a coordinating committee at the level of the NRP Plan.

- (23) In order to ensure the national ownership, Member States wishing to receive support should submit to the Commission NRP Plans that are duly reasoned and substantiated. The NRP Plans should detail how it represents a comprehensive contribution to all objectives of the Fund, taking into account the specific national, regional and territorial challenges of the Member State concerned. It should also include an explanation of how it contributes to effectively addressing the relevant country-specific challenges identified, inter alia, in the context of the European Semester and other relevant documents officially adopted by the Commission related to the objectives supported by the Fund, and how it contributes to the completion of the single market, notably by including reforms, investments and other interventions with a cross-border, transnational or multi-country dimension. To strengthen European competitiveness in strategically important sectors while ensuring the level playing field is not compromised, the NRP Plans should include cross-border and multi-country projects, in particular Important Projects of Common European Interest (IPCEI) focusing on either research, development, innovation or first industrial deployment or on the construction of important infrastructure open for third party use, taking into account, in particular, the analyses provided in the latest Annual Single Market and Competitiveness Report. Member States should concentrate resources under their Plans on reducing economic social and territorial disparities, in particular in less developed regions as well as on supporting generational renewal and social measures.
- (24) The NRP Plan should set out the detailed set of measures and arrangements for its monitoring and implementation, including establishing NRP Plan authorities, monitoring and coordinating committee, the estimated costs of those measures and the national contribution and measures to enhance the quality of governance and reinforce the administrative capacity of public administrations. Close cooperation between the Commission, the Member States and their regions should be sought and achieved throughout the process; policy learning and experimentation should be encouraged.
- (25) Financial support for a NRP Plan should be possible in the form of a loan, subject to the conclusion of a loan agreement with the Commission, on the basis of a duly substantiated request by the Member State concerned presented together with the submission of its NRP Plan. The request for loan support should be justified by the higher financial needs linked to additional reforms and investments included in the NRP Plan and by a higher cost of the NRP Plan than the sum of the Union financial contribution and the national contribution.
- (26) To maximise the additionality of Union funding while upholding principles of equity and solidarity, the national contribution to the estimated costs of the different measures of the NRP Plan should reflect the varying levels of economic development of regions in terms of GNI per capita in relation to the EU-27 average. Compliance with this co-financing requirement should be assessed ex ante as part of the approval procedure of the Plan.

- (27) This Regulation lays down an indicative financial envelope for the Fund. For the purpose of this Regulation, current prices are calculated by applying a fixed 2% deflator.
- (28) In order to foster synergies between the National and Regional Partnership Plans and other Union instruments, the Plans may include measures implemented through financial contributions made by the Member State to the ECF Investment Instrument or to other Union instruments implementing policies aligned to the objectives of the NRP Plan, including contributions necessary to support the implementation through these instruments, provided that such measures comply with this Regulation.
- (29) In duly justified cases, such as crisis situations or other imperative grounds of public interest, the Commission may propose to the Council to adopt an implementing decision approving a NRP Plan in time to allow the necessary actions under this Regulation, while identifying the deficiencies which need to be addressed and the corresponding measures impacted by such deficiencies, for which no payments should be made until the situation has been remedied.
- (30) Member States should have the possibility to make a reasoned request to amend the NRP Plan within the period of implementation of the Fund. The Commission should assess the compliance of the amended NRP Plan with this Regulation in a manner proportionate to the changes proposed. In order to avoid excessive administrative burden, it should be possible for Member States to make minor adjustments to or correct clerical errors in the NRP Plans, by a simple notification of those changes to the Commission, provided that such amendments comply with the requirements of the NRP Plan.
- (31) Each Member State should carry out a mid-term review of its NRP Plan. That review should provide a fully-fledged proposed amendment of the NRP Plan based on the progress in implementing measures, the main results of relevant evaluations and a review of the estimated total costs of the measures covered by the NRP Plan, while also providing the opportunity to take into account new challenges as well as the occurrence of any crisis. For the purposes of the mid-term review, the socioeconomic situation of the Member State or region concerned, including any major negative financial, economic or social development should be also taken into account. The amended NRP Plan submitted by the Member State following the mid-term review should include a proposal for the programming of the flexibility amount with revised or new measures together with their estimated costs and corresponding milestones and targets.
- (32) An EU Facility should be set-up to complement implementation at national and regional level. The EU Facility should support projects of a transnational dimension, with a high EU added value, which require additional coordination efforts at EU level. It should also cater for uncertainty by providing the Union with additional room for manoeuvre to adjust to new priorities and support interventions that cannot be programmed in advance but need to follow developments on the ground. In doing so, the Facility should have the possibility to resort to shared, direct or indirect management depending on the type of measure and most effective course of action. It should also address urgent and specific needs as a response to a crisis situation such as major or regional natural disaster, and foster repair and recovery in view of increasing resilience following a crisis. Union aid should be complementary to the efforts of the Member States concerned and be used to cover a share of the measures implemented to deal with the damage caused by a crisis. To finance these interventions and simplify procedures, 25% of the national envelope of each Member State should constitute the flexibility amount ('crisis and mid-term review measure'). Up to one fifth of this amount should be available to Member States for crisis response in the first years of implementation up until the mid-term review, at least three fifths solely for the mid-term review with the possibility for Member States to request this amount before in duly justified circumstances, and the remaining fifth should become available only after the mid-term review. This will ensure sufficient financial resources for Member States to react to crises until the end of the implementation of the NRP Plans. The budget cushion should be used to ensure an appropriate Union response to unforeseen circumstances and to promote new Union led initiatives or priorities.

- (33) In case of crises as a result of natural disasters and to ensure availability of resources throughout the duration of the Fund, the estimation of the type and amount of support to be provided to the Member State concerned should follow a multi-step approach whereby the Member State should first proceed to amending its NRP Plan before requesting to programme a part of its unallocated flexibility amount and, where the flexibility amount requested and available is not sufficient to cover the needs, request additional support from the Union actions. It should be possible for the Commission to use the budget cushion as a last resort option to provide support should other resources under the Facility prove insufficient to cover the needs.
- (34) A Unity Safety Net is established to stabilize agricultural markets in times of market disturbances. It should be used to address periods and threats of market imbalance, including those caused by issues related to animal or plant health, which impact the prices of agricultural products and the costs of inputs in the whole or part of the internal market. In order to safeguard the Union's strategic autonomy in food supply and ensure food security, the funding allocated for market support through the Unity Safety Net takes into account mounting uncertainties in agricultural markets and increased indirect impact of animal health issues on market balance. The Union safety net does not aim to compensate for direct losses suffered by farmers due to natural disasters. In line with the goal of stabilising the Union agricultural markets, resources dedicated to promotion campaigns about EU farm products should continue in order to open up new market opportunities for the EU agricultural sector and increase the visibility and market share of its products both within the EU and internationally.
- (35) In view of ensuring consistency, the budgetary guarantee and financial instruments, including when combined with grants or with other forms of non-repayable support in blending operations, under the EU Facility should be implemented in accordance with Title X of Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2024/2509 and with technical arrangements, terms and conditions established by the Commission for the purposes of its application. To provide broader access to implementing partners for budgetary guarantees and financial instruments, the Commission should be able to conclude agreements in indirect management with all the categories of entities listed under Article 62(1), first subparagraph, point (c) of Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2024/2509. To ensure sound financial management, budgetary discipline and to limit outstanding payments, the provisioning for the budgetary guarantee implemented under the EU Facility should not be committed after the end of the last year of the MFF and should be constituted by the end of the third year after the end of the MFF. Budgetary commitments for that provisioning should take into account the progress in granting the budgetary guarantee. The constitution of the provisioning should take into account the progress in the approval and signature of the financing and investment operations supporting the objectives of the EU Facility.

- (36) For a more impactful and efficient policy, the new CAP is simplified, with a streamlined set of interventions, and builds on the experience of the previous programming period. It simplifies the tools, avoiding fragmentation and enhancing the strategic approach by Member States. By using the synergies with other policies in the NRP Plan, additional tools will be available for the CAP to effectively contribute to developing a resilient, innovative, and environmentally responsible agricultural sector across Europe.
- (37) Income support for farmers should continue to be an essential policy instrument to guarantee a fair income to farmers. It contributes to fostering a competitive, resilient and sustainable agricultural sector pursuing the benefits of high-quality production and resource-efficiency, which ensures generational renewal and thus long-term food security. CAP support should be focused on active farmers defined in compliance with WTO rules. With a view to further improve the performance of the CAP, area-based income support should be targeted towards farmers who exercise agriculture as a principal activity. Income support should be targeted to farmers who need it most with a particular attention to the farmers in areas with natural constraints, women, young and new farmers. At the same time, rural economic development, ensuring infrastructure improvements and digital transformation that eliminate regional disparities, benefits the attractiveness of rural areas, social inclusion and enhanced employment opportunities in rural areas.
- (38) For distinguishing beneficiaries in the context of the Common Agricultural Policy, the criteria defining the concept of principal activity might include the share of agricultural income within the total income, labour inputs on the farm, company object and inclusion of their agricultural activities in national or regional registers. Member States should be allowed to also use negative lists to identify those applicants who do not meet the definition of ‘farmer’.
- (39) Horizontal financial rules adopted by the European Parliament and the Council based on Article 322 TFEU apply to this Regulation. Those rules are laid down in Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2024/2509 of the European Parliament and of the Council⁸ and determine in particular the procedure for establishing and implementing the general budget of the Union. Rules adopted pursuant to Article 322 TFEU also include a general regime of conditionality for the protection of the Union’s budget in the case of breaches of the principles of the Rule of Law in the Member States established by Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2020/2092⁹.
- (40) Transparency, communication and visibility activities are essential in making Union action visible on the ground and ensuring the traceability of funds and should be based on true, accurate and updated information. To fulfil these goals, it is necessary to provide for appropriate arrangements for collection and reporting of data needed for multiple purposes only once. In view of avoiding duplication of efforts and reducing administrative burden for the Member States, data collected and made available for audit and control, transparency, performance monitoring and evaluation should be streamlined and publication requirements should be established with the aim to ensure maximum transparency.

⁹ Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2020/2092 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 December 2020 on a general regime of conditionality for the protection of the Union budget, OJ L 433I.

- (41) In order to safeguard the financial interests and the budget of the Union, proportionate measures should be established and implemented at the level of Member States and the Commission. The Commission should be able to interrupt payments deadlines, suspend payments and apply financial corrections where the respective conditions are fulfilled. The Commission should respect the principle of proportionality by taking into account the nature, gravity and frequency of irregularities and their financial implications for the budget of the Union. In accordance with the Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2024/2509, Regulation (EU, Euratom) No 883/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council⁽⁶⁾, and Council Regulations (EC, Euratom) No 2988/95⁽⁷⁾, (Euratom, EC) No 2185/96⁽⁸⁾ and (EU) 2017/1939⁽⁹⁾, the financial interests of the Union are to be protected through proportionate measures, including measures relating to the prevention, detection, correction and investigation of fraud, corruption and conflicts of interests, and, where appropriate, the imposition of administrative penalties. In particular, in accordance with Regulations (Euratom, EC) No 2185/96 and (EU, Euratom) No 883/2013, the European Anti-Fraud Office (OLAF) has the power to carry out administrative investigations, including on-the-spot checks and inspections, with a view to establishing whether there has been fraud, corruption or any other illegal activity affecting the financial interests of the Union. In accordance with Council Regulation (EU) 2017/1939, the European Public Prosecutor's Office (EPPO) may investigate and prosecute fraud and other illegal activities affecting the financial interests of the Union as provided for in Directive (EU) 2017/1371 of the European Parliament and of the Council⁽¹⁰⁾. In accordance with Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2024/2509, any person or entity receiving Union funds is to fully cooperate in the protection of the Union's financial interests, to grant the necessary rights and access to the Commission, OLAF, the EPPO and the Court of Auditors (ECA) and to ensure that any third parties involved in the implementation of Union funds grant equivalent rights. Member States should swiftly report to the Commission irregularities detected, including fraud, and any follow-up action they have taken with regard to such irregularities and with regard to any OLAF investigations.
- (42) To reduce administrative burden and costs on recipients of Union funding as well as to avoid duplication of audits and management verifications of the same measures, the concrete application of the single audit principle should be applied for the Fund. The audit authority should carry out audits and ensure that the audit opinion provided to the Commission would be reliable. That audit opinion should provide assurance to the Commission that the Member State's management and control systems function properly, and that the assertions made in the management declaration submitted by the coordinating body are correct.
- (43) In accordance with the principle and rules of shared management, Member States and the Commission should be responsible for the management and control of the Plans and give assurance on the legal and regular use of the Union funds. Since Member States have the primary responsibility for such management and control, they should ensure that operations supported by the Fund comply with applicable law, including applicable public procurement and State aid rules; their obligations in that regard should be specified. The powers and responsibilities of the Commission in that context should also be laid down.
- (44) Procedures for the selection of operations applied by Member States can be competitive or non-competitive provided that criteria applied, and procedures used are non-discriminatory, inclusive and transparent, taking into account the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union, and that the operations selected maximise the contribution of the Union funding and are in line with the horizontal principles defined in this Regulation.

- (45) With a view to ensuring the principle of sound financial management, Member States should ensure that the amount of the estimated total costs of their NRP Plan remain reasonable and plausible throughout its implementation and request an amendment of their NRP Plan where necessary. The Fund's delivery model would aim at providing predictability and consistency between payment levels and the individual implementation pace of each measure by assigning ex-ante pay-out values to each milestone and target. Furthermore, a review of the estimated total costs of the reforms and investments and other interventions covered by the NRP Plan should be conducted by the Member State as part of the mid-term review with corresponding adjustments whenever justified. Additionally, when submitting its final annual assurance package for the last financial year, the Member State should confirm that the total payments from the Commission do not exceed the total amount paid by the Member State to the beneficiaries in implementing the Plan, taking into account the national contribution. For the same reasons of sound financial management, the Commission should be allowed to recover amounts previously paid for interim steps of a measure if the final milestone or target of the given measure is not fulfilled and to take action in case of a reversal of a milestone or a target occurring up to five years after the date of the corresponding Commission payment.
- (46) In order to significantly simplify procedures and reduce administrative burden for recipients, Member States and the Commission while providing robust safeguards on the regular and effective use of Union funds, the NRP Plans will embed measures to facilitate implementation, be it in their design, implementation as well as in monitoring provisions. Such elements will comprise, for instance, providing technical assistance and support to Member States, limiting audit duplications through the application of the single audit approach, moving away from invoice checks to focus on actual results. The national audit authorities and the Commission will not be expected, in that respect, to verify the underlying costs of the operations for the purpose of their audit work. With a view to simplification, technical assistance should be provided throughout implementation via a flat-rate applicable to all payments. The Fund should also provide for sufficient flexibility, whether via streamlined procedures for the amendments of the Plans or better responsiveness to unpredicted crises via multiple mechanisms that allow for mobilising resources for such events, such as revision of the Plan, the flexibility amount or access to the Facility. The Fund should also allow Member States to decide themselves which milestones and targets should be submitted in each payment application on the basis of their respective pace of implementation. With a view to ensuring regular disbursements and the timely delivery of Union objectives on the ground, an annual decommitment rule should ensure that Member States submit regular payment applications for sufficiently substantial amounts.
- (47) The Social Climate Fund pursue similar objectives and support similar actions in a comparable implementation timeline. Therefore, the Social Climate Fund should be integrated into the NRP Plans from 2028 onwards. This would allow for a more efficient use of Union funds and support a more effective and coherent delivery of the objectives of the fund. This would avoid running similar systems and processes in parallel thereby bringing clear benefits in terms of improved policy planning, policy consistency and simplification efforts. It would also ensure the application of common rules, notably regarding respect for the rule of law and compliance with the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights, while Member States' current allocations under the Social Climate Fund would continue to apply. Synergies between existing and future Modernisation Fund investments and the measures of the Plans should also be encouraged through coordinated programming with a view to ensuring better complementarity and policy coherence between the EU budget and the resources allocated to the Modernisation Fund.

- (48) Articles 107, 108 and 109 TFEU should apply to the support under this Regulation. Nevertheless, given the specific characteristics of the agricultural sector, those TFEU provisions should not apply to interventions in the form of direct income support and other types of interventions concerning operations falling within the scope of Article 42 TFEU that are carried out under and in conformity with this Regulation, or to payments made by Member States intended to provide additional national financing for those interventions where the Union support falls within the scope of Article 42 TFEU.
- (49) The provisions of Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2024/2509 on shared management should be adapted to the delivery model of this Regulation. For that purpose, it is necessary to enable the submission of information related to the implementation progress and to adapt the content of the management declaration and audit opinion accordingly.
- (50) In order to supplement or amend certain non-essential elements of this Regulation, the power to adopt acts in accordance with Article 290 TFEU should be delegated to the Commission in respect of Articles on support for local agricultural, fisheries and aquaculture products, reporting on irregularities, calculation of penalties for stewardship, data collection and recording, IACS, as well as Annexes on fulfilment of milestones and targets, progress on implementation, Union actions, financial corrections, EU school scheme, CAP interventions, CAP cooperation.
- (51) In order to ensure uniform conditions for the implementation of the NRP Plan for [the list of Union actions, farming practices, reduction coefficients for oilseeds], implementing powers should be conferred on the Commission. The implementing powers relating to adoption of the Interreg Plan should be exercised in accordance with Regulation (EU) No 182/2011 of the European Parliament and of the Council. The advisory procedure should be used for its adoption. The implementing acts related to fixing the indicative reference support area for each Member State in relation to oilseeds, and to Integrated Administration and Control System shall be adopted in accordance with the examination procedure as established in Article 5 of Regulation (EU) No 182/2011.
- (52) Since acts applicable to the 2021-2027 programming period should continue to apply to programmes and operations supported by the Funds covered under the 2021-2027 programming period and since the implementation period of that Regulation is expected to extend over to the programming period covered by this Regulation and in order to ensure continuity of implementation of certain operations approved by that Regulation, phasing provisions should be established. Each individual phase of the phased operation, which serves the same overall objective, should be implemented in accordance with the rules of the programming period under which it receives funding, while the managing authority may proceed with selecting the second phase on the basis of the selection procedure carried out under 2021-2027 programming period for the relevant operation, provided that it satisfies itself that the conditions set out in this Regulation for phased implementation are complied with.
- (53) Taking into account the need to implement Union Funds covered by this Regulation in a coordinated and harmonised manner, and in order to allow for its prompt implementation, it should enter into force on the day following that of its publication in the Official Journal of the European Union,

1. The Commission shall obtain reasonable assurance that Member States have put in place management and control systems that comply with the requirements laid down in this Regulation and that these systems function effectively and efficiently during the implementation of the Plans.
2. The Commission shall draw up, for the purposes of its own audit work, an audit strategy and an audit plan which shall be based on a risk-assessment and the principle of proportionality.
3. The Commission and the audit authority shall coordinate their audit work.
4. For the purpose of audits, the Commission officials or their authorised representatives shall, in accordance with Article XX(h) [responsibilities of MS], have access to all necessary records, documents and metadata, irrespective of the medium in which they are stored, relating to the plan implementation, including operations supported by the Fund or to management and control systems and shall receive copies in the specific format requested. Article 59

Single audit approach

1. When carrying out audits, the Commission and the audit authorities shall take due account of the principles of single audit and proportionality in relation to the level of risk to the budget of the Union.

2. The Commission and audit authorities shall first use all the information and records referred to in Article XX point (h), including results of management verifications, and may request and obtain additional documents and audit evidence from the plan authorities and beneficiaries concerned where, based on their professional judgement, this is required to support robust audit conclusions.
3. For Plans for which the Commission concludes that the opinion of the audit authority is reliable, and the Member State concerned participates in the enhanced cooperation on the establishment of the EPPO, the Commission's own audits shall be limited to auditing the work of the audit authority.
4. The Commission and the audit authority may decide not to audit milestones and targets in any year where they have already been subject to an audit by the European Court of Auditors.
5. Notwithstanding paragraph 3, any milestone and target may be subject to more than one audit, if the audit authority concludes, based on its professional judgement, that it is not possible to draw up a valid audit opinion.
6. Paragraph 2 of this Article shall not apply where:
 - (a) there is a specific risk or suspicion of fraud, corruption or conflicts of interest or another serious non-compliance with the responsibilities of Member States referred to in Article XX [Responsibilities of Member States];
 - (b) there is a need to re-perform the work of the audit authority for obtaining assurance as to its effective functioning following the risk assessment exercise performed by the Commission;

7. The Commission and the audit authorities shall meet on a regular basis and, unless otherwise agreed, at least once a year to examine the audit strategy, the annual control report and the audit opinion, to coordinate their audit plans and methods, and to exchange views on issues relating to the improvement of management and control systems.

Article 60

Control system for farm stewardship and common fisheries policy

1. Member States shall as a part of the controls referred to in Article XX [Responsibilities of Member States] verify the compliance of applicants and beneficiaries with Article XX paragraph XX of Regulation, XX [CAP, farm stewardship, protective practices] and with Article XX paragraph XX of [the Regulation on Common Fisheries Policy]

Where the area eligible for the support referred to in the first subparagraph, as declared in the geo-spatial application referred to in Article X [IACS], does not exceed 10 hectares, the beneficiaries shall be exempted from controls and penalties under this Article.

Where a beneficiary has been selected for an on-the-spot check on an aid application or on a payment claim, Member States shall, to the extent possible and taking account of the associated risks, not select that beneficiary for a subsequent check and control sample for that year, except when the circumstances require a second control in order to ensure the effective protection of the financial interests of the Union. This provision shall not reduce the level of checks.

2. Member States shall make use of their control and enforcement systems in the areas of climate and environment, public health, plant health and animal welfare, social and employment legislation, applicable labour standards, fisheries and aquaculture to ensure that beneficiaries of the support comply with the requirements set out in the first paragraph.
3. The managing authority or paying agency shall be notified where relevant at least once a year of cases of non-compliance where enforceable decisions in that respect have been made under the applicable control and enforcement systems referred to in paragraph 2. That notification shall include an assessment and grading of the severity, extent, permanence or reoccurrence and intentionality of the non-compliance concerned.
4. A case of non-compliance with Article XX paragraph X of Regulation XX [CAP, farm stewardship, protective practices] shall be the result of an act or omission directly attributable to the beneficiary concerned, and where one or both of the following conditions are met:
 - (a) the non-compliance is related to the agricultural activity of the beneficiary, as defined by Member States in their NRP Plans in accordance with Article 4(24), point (a) [framework definition of agricultural activity];
 - (b) the non-compliance concerns the holding as defined in Article 4(16) [definitions - holding] or other areas managed by the beneficiary situated within the territory of the same Member State.

However, if the non-compliance concerns forest areas, the penalties referred to in the first subparagraph shall not be applied where no support is claimed for the area concerned in accordance with Articles XX [area-based types of interventions that include forests].

5. Member States shall set up a system of administrative penalties applying to beneficiaries referred to in paragraph 4 who do not comply, at any time in the calendar year concerned, with the requirements.

The penalties shall consist of the reduction or exclusion of the total amount of the payments listed in Article X(1) and Article X(1) granted or to be granted to the beneficiary concerned in respect of aid applications that the beneficiary has submitted or will submit in the course of the calendar year of the finding of the non-compliance. The penalties shall be calculated on the basis of the payments granted or to be granted in the calendar year in which the non-compliance occurred. However, where it is not possible to determine the calendar year in which the non-compliance occurred, the reductions or exclusions shall be calculated on the basis of the payments granted or to be granted in the calendar year of the finding of the non-compliance.

For the calculation of those penalties, account shall be taken of the severity, extent, permanence or reoccurrence and intentionality of the non-compliance determined, in line with the assessment referred to in paragraph 3. A penalty imposed pursuant to the national legislation implementing the legal acts listed in Annex XX of Regulation XX [CAP] for the same act or omission of a farmer or other beneficiary shall be taken into account in the calculation of penalties referred to in the first subparagraph.

The expenditure which has been reduced as a result of application of a penalty shall be considered legal and regular. The reduction shall, as a general rule, be 3 % of the total amount of the payments. In the case of intentional non-compliance, the reduction shall be at least 15 % of those payments.

Member States shall provide that no administrative penalty shall be imposed if:

- (a) The non-compliance is due to force majeure or exceptional circumstances;
 - (b) The non-compliance is due to an order from a public authority.
6. In case of a non-compliance with Article XX of Regulation XX [Common Fisheries Policy], the support paid to the beneficiary shall be recovered and an application for support submitted by a beneficiary shall be inadmissible for an identified period of time laid down pursuant to paragraph 7 of this Article, if it has been determined through a final decision by the competent authority concerned that the beneficiary has committed fraud.
7. Where a case as listed in Article XX of Regulation XX [Common Fisheries Policy] occurs between in the period of application and the five years after the final payment, the support paid to the beneficiary shall be recovered. The recovery shall be proportionate to the nature, gravity, duration and repetition of the serious infringements or offences by the beneficiary concerned and the importance of support to the economic activity of that beneficiary.
8. In order to ensure a level playing field among Member States and the effectiveness, proportionality and dissuasive effect of the penalties referred to in paragraph 5 and recoveries and inadmissibility referred to Article XX of Regulation XX [Common Fisheries Policy], and in paragraph 6 and 7 of this Article XX, the Commission is empowered to adopt delegated acts in accordance with Article XX supplementing this Regulation with
- (a) detailed rules on the application and calculation of those penalties;
 - (b) the identification of the threshold triggering, and the period of time of, the inadmissibility as well as the arrangements for recovering the support granted, including thresholds triggering it.

1. FRAMEWORK OF THE PROPOSAL/INITIATIVE

1.1. Title of the proposal/initiative

Proposal for a Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council establishing the Fund.

1.2. Policy area(s) concerned

Competitiveness
Regional development
Social affairs
Agriculture
Defence, preparedness
Home affairs
Maritime and fisheries
Environment and climate action

1.3. Objective(s)

1.3.1. General objective(s)

The Fund aims to:

- reduce regional imbalances in the Union and the backwardness of the less favoured regions, including supporting projects in the area of environment and transport infrastructure;
- support quality employment, education and skills and social inclusion and contributing to a socially fair transition towards climate neutrality;
- support the implementation of the common agricultural policy and fisheries policy of the Union;
- and protect Europe's democracy and upholding European values.

1.3.2. Specific objective(s)

The specific objectives of the Fund are structured around five pillars and aim to contribute to Europe's sustainable prosperity, to Europe's defence capabilities and security; to support people, strengthen Europe's societies and Europe's social model; to sustain Europe's quality of life; and to protect Europe's democracy and enhance institutional capacity.

1.3.3. Expected result(s) and impact

Specify the effects which the proposal/initiative should have on the beneficiaries/groups targeted.

The proposed regulation sets out the financial rules for Union support to be implemented by means of the National and Regional Partnership Plans ('Plans'), Interreg Plan and the EU Facility. It provides for the financial resources for the 2028-2034 programming period.

This new Fund aims at strengthening the economic, social and territorial cohesion of the Union, supporting the implementation of the common agricultural and fisheries policy, boosting the competitiveness of the Unions, strengthening migration and border management, and reinforcing defence and security and protecting Europe's democracy. It will also contribute to other cross-cutting EU priorities like environmental protection and the fight against climate change, preparedness, promoting the rule of law and completing the Single Market, in synergy with other Union budget programmes.

The support provided under the National and Regional Partnership Plans will be tailored to local needs and contexts, while ensuring alignment with EU priorities. By aligning with other policies and easing delivery for all beneficiaries, cohesion, agriculture, home affairs and social policies are expected to become more effective and resilient.

With its single rulebook and reduced number of programming documents, the Fund aims at significantly simplifying procedures and reducing administrative burden for beneficiaries, Member States and the Commission while providing robust safeguards on the regular and effective use of EU funds.

Objective-based delivery and a combination of mutually reinforcing investments and reforms will bring more impact and value for money. Payments will be conditional upon the fulfilment of pre-agreed objectives, which is expected to deliver funds and results more efficiently and speedily.

The Plans will embed measures to facilitate implementation, be it in their design, implementation or monitoring provisions. The Fund will also provide for sufficient flexibility, whether, for instance, via phased allocations and better responsiveness to unforeseen crises via, notably, the EU Facility.

1.3.4. Indicators of performance

Specify the indicators for monitoring progress and achievements.

The output and result indicators for the purpose of monitoring progress and achievements of this programme will correspond to the common indicators provided under the [Performance Regulation] proposed alongside the present regulation.

1.4. The proposal/initiative relates to:

- ☐ a new action
- ☐ a new action following a pilot project / preparatory action²³
- ☒ the extension of an existing action
- ☒ a merger or redirection of one or more actions towards another/a new action

1.5. Grounds for the proposal/initiative

1.5.1. Requirement(s) to be met in the short or long term including a detailed timeline for roll-out of the implementation of the initiative

The Fund shall be applicable from 2028 for the entire length of the multiannual financial framework.

Member States will programme their budgetary allocations in line with the requirements set out in the regulation, taking into account, in particular, the relevant

²³

As referred to in Article 58(2), point (a) or (b) of the Financial Regulation.

country-specific challenges identified, inter alia, in the context of the European Semester and other relevant documents officially adopted by the Commission related to the objectives supported by the Fund.

The new programming period will start on 1 January 2028 and Member States are expected to submit their initial Plan by February 2028 with a view to ensuring the timely launch of the new programming period.

Implementation in direct management under the EU Facility will also start immediately after the entry into force of the programme.

- 1.5.2. Added value of EU involvement (it may result from different factors, e.g. coordination gains, legal certainty, greater effectiveness or complementarities). For the purposes of this section 'added value of EU involvement' is the value resulting from EU action, that is additional to the value that would have been otherwise created by Member States alone.

Reasons for action at European level (ex-ante): EU added value is generated by providing investments and reforms that would not take place otherwise, by widening the scope of existing actions, supporting the mainstreaming of innovations and by enhancing the capacity of Member States administrations. Ample evidence demonstrates that EU policies would not have been implemented without complementary EU investment. Thanks to European funding, Member States and their regions have invested in areas, target groups and reforms in a way that would have been impossible with national funding only. While the competence to deal with some of the policies covered by the present Fund rests mainly at national level, given the scale and effect of the challenges, action has proven more effective and efficient if the EU level supports the efforts made by Member States and helps promote reforms beneficial to individual countries and the EU as a whole.

Expected generated Union added value (ex-post): As highlighted by recent crises, the many challenges faced by European economies and societies in particular as regards, inter alia, agriculture, security, social and territorial cohesion or climate adaptation, call for continued investments and reforms in these areas. The initiative is expected to contribute to implement EU policies and priorities in these areas in a coordinated and coherent way, promote best practices and cooperation (to improve policy-making and implementation capacity, facilitate transnational cooperation), promote EU values (such as the rule of law and fundamental rights) and assist Member States in overcoming institutional and regulatory obstacles that hinder the fulfilment of EU policy priorities, including the implementation of the EU acquis and completion of the Single Market. Funding at Union level shall also support EU public goods such as strategic policies that may be insufficiently prioritised by Member States due, for instance, to market failures, but which bring high EU-wide benefits. These include projects benefitting more than one Member State, such as cross-border projects or Important Projects of Common European Interest.

- 1.5.3. Lessons learned from similar experiences in the past

This Fund builds upon experience gathered in the implementation of other relevant Union funding in the 2021-2027 programming period which identified the following key lessons learned:

(1) Simplification: there is a need to reduce complexity and administrative burden and costs for Member States' authorities, beneficiaries and the Commission caused by the current fragmentation of EU support and the co-existence of different eligibility rules, delivery models and assurance systems.

(2) Flexibility: the need for a more flexible budget that is able to respond to new needs and emerging priorities throughout the entire programming period. These flexibilities should be embedded in the design of the Fund while still ensuring the predictability of EU funding and the delivery of long-term policy objectives.

(3) Coherence: the need for strengthened coherence across funds and policy frameworks. The EU budget should make full use of its size to incentivise investments and reforms that contribute to Union objectives and address national and regional challenges in a more holistic and coordinated manner. This should contribute to greater coherence between EU priorities and national and regional actions and enhance value for money.

1.5.4. Compatibility with the multiannual financial framework and possible synergies with other appropriate instruments

Consistency and complementarity between the Fund and other EU funds, notably the European Competitiveness Fund (ECF) and the Connecting Europe facility (CEF), shall be ensured, in particular, through the steering mechanism which will provide guidance on the key policy priorities to be financed under each annual budget procedure. Potential synergies with the ECF and CEF stem from the possibility to support under the Fund reforms and investments contributing to cross-border initiatives and European competitiveness.

The Commission and the Member States should (i) ensure complementarity, synergy, coherence and consistency among different instruments at Union, national and regional levels, both in the planning phase and during implementation; (ii) close cooperation between the authorities responsible for the implementation and control at Union, national and regional levels to achieve the objectives of the Fund.

The financial support from the Fund will be additional to the support provided under other Union funds and programmes. Operations may receive support from other Union programmes and instruments provided that such support does not cover the same cost. For that purpose, Member States and the Commission should cooperate in designing and implementing operations which are cumulatively financed under the National Regional and Partnership Plan and another Union programmes to ensure double funding is avoided.

1.5.5. Assessment of the different available financing options, including scope for redeployment

The Fund will provide non-repayable financial support and loans (if requested by Member States) to support the fulfilment of the objectives of the Fund. It may also provide funding in the form of financial instruments.

The National and Regional Partnership Plans and the Interreg Plan will be implemented under shared management while the Facility will have the possibility to resort to shared, direct or indirect management depending on the type of measure and most effective course of action.

1.6. Duration of the proposal/initiative and of its financial impact

☐ limited duration

- ☐ in effect from [DD/MM]YYYY to [DD/MM]YYYY

2. MANAGEMENT MEASURES

2.1. Monitoring and reporting rules

In order to monitor the performance of the implementation of the Fund a system for requesting and executing payments from the Fund will be set up.

In order to receive funds from the Fund, Member States should submit their National Regional and Partnership ('Plans') to set the reforms, investments and other interventions to be financed. The Commission is to assess those Plans and shall only approve them after a positive assessment based on the requirements outlined in this Regulation. The disbursement of the financial contribution will follow the completion of pre-set milestones and targets agreed with the Member State concerned. For that purpose, Member States may submit a payment application up to six times a year in line with the template annexed to this Regulation.

The performance of the Fund will be monitored through the performance framework provided in the Performance Regulation, including through the common list of intervention fields and output and result indicators.

An implementation report will be published by the Commission no later than four years after the start of the programme's implementation, in order to assess the progress made towards the achievement of their objectives. A retrospective evaluation will be carried out by the Commission at the latest three years after the end of the programming period of the programme with a view to assessing the effectiveness, efficiency, relevance, coherence and Union added value of the programme.

2.2. Management and control system(s)

2.2.1. Justification of the budget implementation method(s), the funding implementation mechanism(s), the payment modalities and the control strategy proposed

The management, control and audit of the Fund will be governed by specific rules to ensure transparency, accountability and the proper use of EU funding, in line with applicable law and the principle of sound financial management.

The Regulation includes, in particular, strong safeguards to ensure the robustness and quality of national control systems and allow effective and timely action in case of deficiency.

Key requirements of the management and control systems of the Member States, including on the prevention, detection and correction of cases of fraud, corruption and conflicts of interests as well as on compliance with public procurement and State aid rules, will be clearly defined ex ante and will have to be met throughout implementation. Before approving each Plan, the Commission will assess whether Member States have adequate arrangements in place to comply with these requirements and ensure the protection of the Union's financial interests. These requirements should enable a maximum use of existing structures already in place for the management of EU funds, with possible adaptations of their procedures to ensure adequate assurance. In case of serious deficiency, Member States will have to take corrective action before payments can be undertaken.

The level and intensity of controls is tailored to the performance-based delivery model of the Fund and is based on clear sequencing and division of duties between the Commission and Member States.

In line with the single audit principle, Commission audits under shared management will first and foremost consist of systems audits to avoid duplications of controls and audits and reduce the administrative burden, thereby addressing demands for simplification and predictability. The audit authority should carry out audits and ensure that the audit opinion provided to the Commission is reliable. That audit opinion should provide assurance to the Commission that the Member State's management and control systems function properly and that the assertions made in the management declaration submitted by the coordinating body are correct.

The Commission will however retain the possibility to conduct more targeted checks, for instance in case of a specific risk or suspicion of fraud, corruption or conflicts of interest or a serious breach by the Member State of its obligations, and act in a timely and proportionate manner if deficiencies have not been properly addressed by Member States.

2.2.2. Information concerning the risks identified and the internal control system(s) set up to mitigate them

The risks mainly relate to irregular expenditure (e.g. non-achievement or reversal of a milestone or target) or serious non-compliance of the Member States with its obligations under the present regulation, notably as regards the protection of the Union's financial interests and compliance with rule of law and Charter horizontal conditions.

To safeguard the Union's financial interests, the Regulation will establish proportionate measures at the level of Member States and the Commission, in line with their respective responsibilities.

Member States are required to maintain robust management, control and audit systems to ensure compliance with all key requirements throughout implementation and to provide, each year, an assurance package to report on the sound and regular use of funds.

The Commission will conduct regular audits on the work performed by national authorities to assess the robustness and reliability of national procedures and will issue, whenever relevant, recommendations with a clear implementation timeline to remedy deficiencies. There will be a possibility to block payments at anytime during implementation and in line with the principle of proportionality, taking into account the nature, duration, gravity and scope of the identified deficiency.

2.2.3. Estimation and justification of the cost-effectiveness of the controls (ratio between the control costs and the value of the related funds managed), and assessment of the expected levels of risk of error (at payment & at closure)

Member States will have to ensure that the amount of the estimated total costs of their Plan remain reasonable and plausible throughout its implementation, in accordance with the principle of sound financial management, and request an amendment of their Plan where necessary. The Fund's delivery model will aim at providing predictability and consistency between payment levels and the individual implementation pace of each measure by assigning ex-ante pay-out values to each milestone and target.

A review of the estimated total costs of the reforms and investments and another interventions covered by the Plan should be conducted by the Member State as part of the mid-term review with corresponding adjustments whenever justified.

When submitting its final annual assurance package for the last financial year, the Member State should confirm that the total payments from the Commission do not exceed the total amount paid by the Member State to the beneficiaries in implementing the Plan, taking into account the national contribution.

2.3. Measures to prevent fraud and irregularities

The Regulation contains the necessary provisions to ensure that the implementation of the Fund complies with the protection of the financial interests of the Union.

The financial interests of the Union are to be protected through proportionate measures, including measures relating to the prevention, detection, correction and investigation of fraud, corruption and conflicts of interests, and, where appropriate, the imposition of administrative penalties. In particular, the European Anti-Fraud Office (OLAF) has the power to carry out administrative investigations, including on-the-spot checks and inspections, with a view to establishing whether there has been fraud, corruption or any other illegal activity affecting the financial interests of the Union. The European Public Prosecutor's Office (EPPO) may investigate and prosecute fraud and other illegal activities affecting the financial interests of the Union. Any person or entity receiving Union funds is to fully cooperate in the protection of the Union's financial interests, to grant the necessary rights and access to the Commission, OLAF, the EPPO and the Court of Auditors (ECA) and to ensure that any third parties involved in the implementation of Union funds grant equivalent rights. Member States should swiftly report to the Commission irregularities detected, including fraud, and any follow-up action they have taken with regard to such irregularities and with regard to any OLAF investigations.
